

Woof Press Release: Real Property Management Colorado becomes a Woof Foundation sponsor

— 10:28 AM MT 11/30/2016

Colorado-based Real Property Management(RPM) Colorado has become a Woof Foundation sponsor. The Foundation would like to thanks RPM Colorado for supporting canine families in need. “We are extremely happy of the support we recently received from Greg (Bacheller) and his team at Real Property Management Colorado”, says Rick Rusch, Executive Director of The Woof Foundation. “The Foundation would like to recognize RPM Colorado’s commitment to our community and to helping canine families struggling to help with the medical care of their best furry friends - A heartfelt thank you”, Rick added.

About Real Property Management Colorado --- Real Property Management(RPM) Colorado is the leading residential company in Denver property management and Colorado Springs property management. RPM Colorado leases and manages residential property for individual owners, investors and financial institutions. RPM Colorado specializes in single-family homes, townhomes, lofts, condos, multi-plexes and small apartment buildings. They have leased and managed thousands of these types of properties in Denver and Colorado Springs. Put their experienced team of professional property managers to work for you!

About The Woof Foundation, Inc --- The Woof Foundation was created to help dogs and their human family members, together. Though centered in the Denver-metro area, we have plans to help canine families across the USA. The foundation provides financial assistance to families that are struggling to keep their furry family members due to medical, behavioral, other needs. We believe that dogs are family members deserving of help like human family members. Dogs are our favorite people.

Links ---

www.303rent.com

www.thewooffoundation.org

